

The Future of the Multilateral Trade System - CPP Symposium

Monday 7th April, 2008

@ MBS, 200 Leicester Street, Carlton

Final Program

- 9.00am – 9:30am Registration, tea and coffee
- 9:30am Welcome
- Ann Capling
University of Melbourne
- 9:35am Introduction to Warwick Commission Report
- Richard Higgott
Warwick University, UK
- Patrick Low
World Trade Organisation
- 10:00am Using Aid for Trade to Secure the Benefit of Trade Reform
- Simon Evenett
University of St Gallen, Switzerland
- Preferentialism and the Multilateral Trade System
- Heribert Dieter
German Institute for International and Security Affairs
- Chair/Discussant: Peter Lloyd
- 11:15am Morning Tea

11:45am

Operationalising Special and Differential Treatment

Andrew Mitchell
University of Melbourne

Tania Voon
University of Melbourne

Combining Justice with Efficiency: The Multilateral Trade Regime and the Warwick Commission Report

Cecilia Albin
University of Uppsala, Sweden

Chair/Discussant: Andrew Stoler

1:00pm

Lunch

2:00pm

What makes Critical Mass Agreements fissile or fusional?

Peter Gallagher
Inquit Pty Ltd

Breaking the Impasse: A Critical Mass Approach to Multilateral Trade Negotiations

Andrew Stoler
University of Adelaide

Chair/Discussant: Patrick Low

3:15pm

Afternoon Tea

3:30pm

The Disjunction Between the Economics of Trade and Trade Negotiations

Peter Lloyd
University of Melbourne

Chair/Discussant: Richard Higgott

4:30pm

Close